What is a crystalline silicon photovoltaic module?

In 2011, they represented above 85% of the total sales of the global PV cell market. The Crystalline silicon photovoltaic modules are made by using the silicon crystalline (c-Si) solar cells, which are developed in the microelectronics technology industry.

What are multi-crystalline silicon solar modules?

Multi-crystalline silicon solar modules are better known as Polycrystalline solar modules. Crystalline silicon cells are fabricated with silicon atoms that are connected and create a crystal lattice. Such lattice offers a well-organized structure that facilitates the efficient conversion of sunlight into electricity.

Are silicon crystalline solar cells a good investment?

Since the early 1950s, Silicon crystalline solar cells have overpowered the global photovoltaic market. Silicon is an abundant and non-toxic element available in the earth's crust. Over the years in practice, crystalline silicon PV modules have exhibited their long-standing performance.

How much does silicon crystalline cost?

Silicon crystalline is an expensive material in the solar energy industry because of its various prolonged manufacturing processes. It is manufactured by the diminution of high-grade quartz sand in an electric furnace. In the international market, crystalline silicon for PV applications can cost you around USD 50. However, there's no single figure.
