Overview

What is an explosion proof solar panel?

An explosion proof solar panel is a crucial component in solar-powered systems. This 150-watt solar panel, operating on 12V (nominal) with a module efficiency rate of 14.6 percent, is designed to be safe for use in hazardous environments. At maximum power, the unit offers 18.1V and a current of 8.3A, with a Class C application class and a 20A maximum fuse rating.

Are ATEX solar panels explosion-proof?

Enhanced Safety Features: Standard panels do not need to be explosion-proof, meaning they lack safety features of ATEX and IECEx-certified panels. For instance, while a typical solar panel might house its electrical connections in standard junction boxes, ATEX panels use explosion-proof junction boxes.

Which solar panels are ATEX & IECEx certified?

For companies like JCE, which manufactures the SPA series of ATEX and IECEx-certified solar panels, compliance with both certification systems allows their products to be used across industries worldwide, particularly in challenging environments such as offshore oil & gas installations and chemical processing plants.

Are spa solar panels ATEX certified?

The SPA series of photo voltaic Solar Panels are Zone 1 and 2 ATEX Ex mb e certified products. The cells of the panel are encapsulated between a tempered glass cover and EVA pottant with an aluminium polyester protected back sheet to provide maximum protection in the most extreme environmental conditions.
