Who is responsible for the energy sector in Gabon?

The Ministry of Petroleum and Gas and the Ministry of Energy and Hydraulic Resources share responsibility for the energy sector. SEEG, the national electricity and water service company of Gabon, was under a concession to the French company Veolia from 1997.

Is Gabon a gas-to-power leader?

The Owendo power plant, VAALCO's production expansion and the commissioning of Karpower's floating plants are positioning Gabon as an emerging gas-to-power leader, creating extensive opportunities for investors and service companies to explore at the upcoming Invest in African Energy Forum in Paris.

Will Owendo gas power plant increase Gabon's electricity generation by 50%?

The Owendo gas power plant project, which will commence construction in June, is expected to play a vital role in Gabon's goal of increasing its electricity generation by 50% by 2025.

Who funds Gabon Power Company?

GPC's projects are primarily carried out under build-own-operate-transfer schemes and have received funding from major international institutions including the IFC, the African Development Bank, the Development Bank of Southern Africa and the Emerging Africa Infrastructure Fund.
