High cost performance lithium iron phosphate battery pack

Overview

Are LiFePO₄ batteries toxic?

The materials used in LiFePO₄ battery packs, such as iron, phosphorus, and lithium, are relatively non - toxic compared to some of the heavy metals and toxic chemicals used in other battery chemistries.

What are large power's custom lithium ion battery packs used for?

Large Power's custom lithium ion battery packs are used in medicine, finance, communication, security and protection, logistics, mining, photovoltaic, and 3C consumer products. They are in compliance with IEC61960, IEC62133, IEEE-1725, UL2054, UL1642, and other international certifications.

Why is phosphate a good choice for LFP batteries?

It is worth noting that the stability of phosphate structure particularly strong PO bond imparts higher thermal stability as well as longer lifecycle to the LFP batteries making them suitable for stationary energy storage systems or a specific kind of EVs with defined safety requirements.

What is a LiFePO₄ battery?

2.1 The Cathode Material: LiFePO₄ The cathode of a LiFePO₄ battery pack is composed of lithium iron phosphate, which has an olivine - type crystal structure. This structure consists of a three - dimensional framework of PO₄ tetrahedra and FeO₆ octahedra, with lithium ions (Li⁺) occupying interstitial sites.
